To Whom It May Concern:

The purpose of this letter is to provide an affirmation of the editing and story telling talents of Asaf Eisenberg.

In Israel, Asaf worked as a television and film editor and in 2001 he chose to move to Los Angeles to broaden his horizons. When I first met him, I immediately recognized his gifts and potential and decided to invest in his success. For the next few years, I took him under my wing and made sure he learned from me how to create a lasting career.

To expand his knowledge of story telling he went on his own to work on a wide array of projects. These projects enabled him to expand his ability to flush out the most complete story. I firmly believe that his collaborative ability and versatile editing style coupled with a global perspective on story telling makes him an asset to any project

I have been and continue to be invested in Asaf's success as an editor to the extent of carrying the role of supervising editor on any project he works on.

Please call me if you have any questions at 213-840-1578.

Sincerely,
